From Day to Day

OUT IN THE FIELDS.
 The little cases that fretted me I lost them yesterday. Among the fields, above the sea, Among the winds at play. Among the lowing of the herds, The rustling of the trees, Among the singing of the birds, The humming of the bees, Among the hushing of the corn, Where the drowsy poppies nod, Where all things die and go and are born— Out in the fields with God.—Mrs. E. B. Browning.

SOCIAL.
 Mrs. Bishop, of Wingham, Ont., visiting her son, Mr. E. T. Bishop, Secretary of the... Miss Alcocke, of Louisiana, who has returned to her home in the South. The engagement is announced in Toronto of Mr. Alfred Davies of London, Eng., and Toronto, to Miss Grace Allen, sister of Mrs. Benjamin Knowles of New York City.

Mrs. Saunders will likely spend the winter at the coast, and it is said that Mr. Justice Harvey of Calgary will take the Saunders home on Sixth Avenue for the winter season. Miss Gertrude Davis, of Ottawa, who has been spending the summer with her sister, Mrs. J. B. Rydman, left last week for the coast. Mr. Rydman accompanying her as far as Seattle.

Mr. and Mrs. Pardee have returned to town from their summer outing at Albert. Mr. and Mrs. Fisher have also come back to town. The going and coming of Edmonton people to one or another of the pretty lakes in the vicinity continued. Mr. White Whistle Lake, the latter will spend some weeks yet at Clover Bar with her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Hartford have gone to Cooking Lake for a vacation. Miss Webster and a party of friends have gone to Cooking Lake for an outing.

SAVING EUROPEAN TOURS.

Somebody in Chicago has been studying the serving-man problem and made it already pleasantly solved—for the serving-man. She has good trips, good wages and now she plans to go to Europe. In Chicago alone as many as 2,000 serving girls, since the last of June, yearly for Europe to return the last of the summer. The Swedish girls go direct to the coast of Sweden, while others go to Germany and England. Some go to the Old Country where they will visit them, especially if her bank roll is some time large, but if she is planning to save an extra allowance of money home has few, if any, attractions for her.

MET DEATH IN WELL.

Saskatchewan Homesteaders Met Tragic Death. Henry, Sask., Aug. 23.—Lewis Wrench and George Robinson, two homesteaders living near Buffalo Lake, east of Hanley, met death while digging a well on Wrench's farm on Wednesday. They had bored down 14 feet when the auger struck a large rock which necessitated blasting it. At 4.30, some time after the charge had exploded, Wrench was lowered with a bucket on the cable, but quickly called out to be pulled up again. When near the top, evidently struck by the gas, he dropped off the cable, his body being caught by a rod twenty feet from the bottom. Some neighbors went to Robinson's assistance, whom he at once lowered down. Robinson evidently could not get hold of Wrench, and called out to be drawn up. He was almost overcome when he reached the top and was laid on the grass while stone went for further assistance to another neighbor, Fitch. Before they could get back Robinson had revived and again lowered himself down, and that was the last of him.

Many neighbors had now gathered, including some G. T. P. engineers and Dr. Elder. The engineers ultimately got Robinson out, and Dr. Elder worked upon him for several hours, but too late to bring him around. Wrench's body was not recovered until about half-past nine by some of the neighbors, when all hopes of his recovery were abandoned.

Both were originally out from England, having been in Manitoba for some years. They worked all last summer in and around Hanley, well digging.

Insurance Men Elect Officers.

Toronto, Aug. 24.—The report of the nominating committee of the National Association of Life Underwriters of the United States has been adopted with the following result: President, Chas. Jerome, of New York; vice president, Herbert C. Cox, of Toronto; Wm. H. Herrick, of St. Louis; John Withington, Los Angeles; secretary, Will A. White, Detroit; treasurer, Eli D. Weeks, Littlefield, Conn. Two Candidates—George Allen and Homer Vipond, of Montreal—were elected to the executive committee. The new association of Ontario Fire Insurance Agents, formed to consolidate and protect insurance men has elected as officers: President S. C. Young, Port William; vice-president, Omar D. Steele, Port Colborne; W. B. Stephen, Owen Sound, Ont.; secretary-treasurer, Neil Campbell, Art. pres.; executive committee, R. A. Leckie, Barrie; G. T. Boyd, London; E. E. Anderson, Danville; A. K. Bunell, Bradford, and J. H. Skiffon, Parry Sound.

A. L. Herford, New President.

Buffalo, N. Y., Aug. 22.—The National Fraternal Congress today elected A. L. Herford, Springfield, Ill., president. Secretary-Treasurer Y. A. Gower was re-elected. Those favoring Herford failed to put up a ticket. The next convention will be held at Put-in-Bay, Ohio.

Trips to points of interest, whetting about the country, and sightseeing the most popular way of spending the vacation.

One would look her wheel with her and toured the British Isles. At night she would stop at hospitable farmhouses, and under the moonlight would see the ride the next day. She spent sixty days in this way before reaching her village home. Picture the surprise of her friends, who had waved farewell at the dock when her possessions were little more than a light suit and trunk, and the latter filled modestly with home-made goods. Most of the girls travel in parties of four or five, the girls best knowing the bus and out of the party, the money, the money, the money, and purchasing the tickets and berths for the entire party. It is remarkable that many of the girls, and it is a comfort to the party to know they are getting the best of everything possible for the amount of money expended. If a girl does not go over with the party and is obliged to look after her self, she will place her money in her national aid society. It will at once be put to good use, and the girl managing the party. This will simplify things for the ignorant girl, and she finds that it saves her money in the long run. It is a small contribution to the society.

INGENUITY.

"You must write me lots of postal cards while I am away for the summer," said one young woman to her mother. "Why postal cards?" inquired the mother. "Oh, to make it more pleasant and sensible. The postmaster takes an interest in you and everybody is willing to go after your mail if you have plenty of postal cards in it."

THE TEDDY BEAR CONDEMNED.

New York, Aug. 14.—Teachers in charge of the sewing department in the summer school at New York City recently have put a ban on the Teddy bear, and henceforth the elaborate decoration, adorned upon him by school children will be discouraged. A great first has arisen in the minds of pedagogues, and others that the old-fashioned doll of our foremothers will soon become a wholly criticized species of plaything and, this every one thinks would prove a great and fearful calamity.

Teachers feel assured that the craze for the Teddy bear is seriously affecting the industry and consequently the work of the school of the Teddy bear. For where for the first time the school children, by a spirit of enthusiasm in becoming familiar with the various attitudes of the maker of the doll, are made in order that their dollies resemble the real thing. It is, however, there has been of late a falling off in the interest, and it is only inspired, when conjuring up some faint bit of apparel for the beloved Teddy bear.

FAST GOING AT READVILLE.

Closest Finishes Seen on Grand Circuit This Season. Readville, Mass., Aug. 22.—After three of the closest finishes seen this present Grand Circuit meeting here in the history of the sport, the winner of the Norfolk Stakes, valued at $6,000.

While scoring for the first time, William Addington and Miss Gay col. held at the wire. In the final heat, Taunton, Mass., driver of Miss Gay, was thrown in the air and landed fully thirty feet in front of the other col. He escaped with a badly sprained ankle. Cox who was behind Addington, was thrown against the fence, and was not much injured. The driver of the horse was hurt in the mixup. Goers set the pace in the opening heat with a dash, winning by a neck. In the following heat Goers followed Kruger to the finish when he outbraked the gelding, gaining the decision by a narrow margin. In the final heat McDonald dropped directly behind John A. and again Kruger, ahead in a desperate drive through the heavy stretch while Kruger, Hal just nipped second position. Kruger is the property of Ralph R. Williams of Boston.

Thas Ham surprised the talent by taking the Pompano, valued at $4,500. Embury attempted to spread eagle his field by gaining a big lead through trotting the first half in better than 1:53, and fasted barely long enough to win the first heat. In the following heat the California stallion raced Embury into an unbroken finish, and in the final, Latta, owned by Lotta Crabtree, handily got the better of the field in 2:28 1/2.

Newspaper Fined $1,000.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 21.—A newspaper published in Moscow in the Russian language the Octoberist party called Uspensky's speech "The Value of the Russian Revolution" for publishing the indictment against the person implicated in the plot against the czar and a criminal action has been begun against the editor of the paper. Publication of the indictment reports of the trial and comment thereon were strictly forbidden throughout Russia, and greater severity was observed in this case than in any former similar political trial.
